

What are the least enjoyable

I wouldn't call it a coffee shop	it's more the tuck shop as you say. yeah. a tuck shop with a coffee machine. I wouldn't even call in a coffee shop because it's not like cosy or anything.
Environment	yeah the seating is a bit rubbish I think yes it is a bit rubbish, when you actually get loads of people around a table there downstairs is a bit awkward because the tables are so large so you're like sat there you're taking up the whole table. and they don't have anywhere to move to, it's not like theres small tables and there so in terms of the chairs and the tables they are just cheap, hard, nasty. A bit fued as well I find especially around lunchtime it gets pretty busy in there. If I was going to somewhere like costs I'd be there for a lot longer so I would expect in terms of the JCR I'm only there for 45 minutes tops chatting to people so yes in the decor it's not very well planned out. I think the seating area is the worst it's not comfortable or anything. yeah the seats are really uncomfortable. I don't know how good the coffee is I think if it was that break I don't see the JCR it's not really a place you go to get a drink it's a place you go to meet people. mean people do talk in the JCR but it's sort of always a bit hard you have half the there. I never studied out there whenever I try it's always too noisy and I don't find I would never say I'm going to meet someone and have a chat in there. I'd only go more of a coffee shop.
Feelings for coffee shop	yeah that's about it really. It could be a little more well appointed it's a bit basic
Coffee & drinks	if were talking in terms of coffee and hot drinks and lack of choice Unless you want your bog standard coffee, cappuccino, latte. If you want something no the hot chocolate are like disgusting. it sells really shit coffee tho.
Price	it's so expensive yeah and it is expensive for what the food is. it's expensive though and it doesn't have a big variety I think the sandwiches really overpriced, and there not that nice. I wouldn't pay £2.20 there sandwiches.
Service	the women there are not that nice. yeah they're really moody not that pleasant either yeah there like "90p please" they don't even say please sometimes. yeah the just get annoyed I never get annoyed with the like the queueing system the thing is it's really stupid because they have got to tills in the middle like it doesn't work or whatever
Food	I don't think it's too much choice there like food wise its not very appetising it's yeah there is nothing there to tempt you really are basically you go then think that they're really boring (the sandwiches).
opening hours	And upstairs they have a coffee shop which isn't open as long as the other hours

Open: Time	I mean I thought closed at four and then I came out the other day and it wasn't closed but they're closing earlier than five these days because we try and get down the
Vending machines	I mean the actual place is open 24 hours, if you go down there and the shops close the vending machines are also half the time empty because people been using t
